Overall Situation

After the ethnic cleansing of thousands of Montenegrins, driving them into neighboring countries, the military forces of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (FRY) invaded Montenegro, claiming the country as one more of its states.

NATO countries attempted to gain authorization from the United Nations Security Council for military action, but were opposed by China and Russia that indicated they would veto such a proposal. In this situation, NATO launched a campaign without UN authorization, which it described as a humanitarian intervention, in an attempt to restore Montenegro's freedom.

The 87th Stray Dogs Virtual Fighter Wing was given the assignment of destroying Podgorica's Runways which, according to INTEL, is an operational base for a fleet of MiG 29A, with the ultimate goal of air supremacy.
